

The Kansas City District Advisory Board took the following action on April 2, 2020:

Kansas City District Advisory Board: CARES Act/Paycheck Protection Program

The Kansas City District Advisory Board approves the participation of any of our organized churches in the Federal CARES Act/Paycheck Protection Program. A majority vote of the local church board will be required before a local church can participate in this program. While the District Advisory Board approves participation, it is the responsibility of each local church to research and be fully aware of all specific obligations connected to this Federal assistance program. Monies gained through this program shall be used for their intended purpose.
